What are missionaries?

NYCCC missionaries are people who are called by God to go to other parts of the world to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ. They are trained and supported by the church to live in foreign countries and to minister to the people there. They are called to be a witness to the world and to bring the good news of the Kingdom of God to all nations.

May 2014

NYCCC missionaries have been working in various capacities across the globe. In May 2014, the focus was on outreach and evangelism in the Pacific region. The team consisted of several dedicated individuals who spent their time in prayer, teaching, and community service. The results of their efforts were significant, with many new converts and strengthened relationships with existing believers. The missionaries also engaged in various cultural activities to better understand and connect with the local populations. This period was marked by a deep commitment to the Gospel and a desire to bring the message of Christ to all who would hear it.
